Dear Sirs

Having faced Mick Ramsden across the negotiating table in his former role, I had no hesitation in utilising the services of Ramsden Purchasing to review our purchasing spend. Over the last 18 months RPL has achieved significant cost savings for us in what we know has been a very challenging cost environment.

I have been impressed with the professionalism shown and Mick's tenacious but sensible approach to developing good relationships with our supplier base.

I would not hesitate to recommend the company and indeed we have retained the services of Ramsden Purchasing.
